"To anyone considering study of Constitutional Facial Renewal: this course was professionally and expertly conceived, structured, and administered.

Its contents allow the practitioner to take their years of dedicated study and align it to the wants and needs of countless patients. This format builds the patient's self-esteem, constitution, and health as a whole.

The course was taught in an energetic hands-on manner. Layout of this class sets the standard for continuing education in our field of study."

-G.S., L.Ac., Houston, TX

"The facial renewal course was thorough and informative, as well as fun. I particularly enjoyed the ample time to do hands-on work, which enabled immediate feedback to correct technique. I would recommend this course to any practitioners who have an interest in facial renewal."

-K.N., L.Ac., San Diego, CA

"This was one of the most profound courses that I have taken. Mary Elizabeth's deep understanding of Traditional Oriental Medicine, and her unique ability to translate ancient wisdom with modern approaches made this a riveting class.

Her natural sense of humour and her respect for her students encouraged a positive, fun learning environment. I would highly recommend Mary Elizabeth's course to anyone interested in supporting our health on all levels. Thank you!"

L.T., Dipl.O.M., Los Ranchos, NM

"A very wonderful workshop, finally including facial acupuncture as an effective tool to address the mind, emotions and spirit, all within the TCM theory and practice. In light of this, its effectiveness in improving the complexion and physicality of the face seems a mere positive side effect ..."

Module 2: Advanced Constitutional Facial Acupuncture Renewal™ September 26-27, 2010; 9:00 am – 6:00 pm

Note: Module 1 is a prerequisite for Module 2 - no exceptions

You will learn advanced needling techniques, such as scar needling, intradermal needling, Japanese techniques, threading, needle depth and insertion techniques, as well as work with facial muscles and motor points. All advanced needling techniques will be demonstrated by the Instructor.

The seminar will also include:

- Energetics of the face;
- New! Facial syndromes and treatment: TMJ, neuropathies, scalp acupuncture;
- Anatomy and physiology of the skin;
- Function of the 24 facial motor points – an Oriental medicine perspective
- Guidelines and a suggested protocol for motor points;
- Advanced needling technique demonstration by the instructor
- Business Forum – how to profit during the recession; new ways to promote your practice, create a client base, advertise, professional connections, web site, e-mails, YouTube, Facebook, etc.

Note: Returning students may choose to re-take either or both modules, as a "refresher" course, for half price. Cost is calculated from the undiscounted regular tuition rate, rather than the early registration discount. Space for this option is limited.

Please note: Registrants are required to complete all 4 days to receive certification.

Instructor Biography

Mary Elizabeth Wakefield, AAOM Educator of the Year (2005), is an internationally-recognized author, teacher, Oriental medical practitioner and musician – a licensed acupuncturist, herbalist, Zen shiatsu and cranio-sacral therapist, and an opera singer. An outspoken and articulate advocate of Oriental medicine, she is a creator of innovative treatment protocols and writer for acupuncture periodicals – including a regular column in Acupuncture Today magazine – and has contributed significantly to raising public awareness of facial acupuncture as a viable, holistic treatment modality.

In addition to her contributions to Acupuncture Today, she has likewise contributed articles to CJOM, OM Journal, and The Lantern (Australia), among other periodicals. She has appeared prominently in interviews and profiles in the national media, including The New York Times, Alternative Medicine, the Associated Press, and on The Discovery Channel, ABC-TV and FOX-TV.

Ms. Wakefield recently taught seminars in Australia, New Zealand and Japan, and was the only North American acupuncturist invited to present at an international TCM Forum sponsored by Shanghai Shuguang Hospital, associated with the Shanghai University of TCM. To date, Mary Elizabeth has trained 2,500 practitioners from around the world in her unique philosophy and treatment protocols.
